Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1, 4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41 are again provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 47-50 and 55-63 of copending Application No. 11/093,742. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of record, for reason of record as set forth in the previous Office action dated January 27, 2010 at pages 2-3 as applied to claims 1-4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41 is hereby MAINTAINED.

Applicants' remarks regarding the provisional obviousness-type double patenting should be removed over the copending application No. 11/093,742 because the present application was filed earlier than the copending application are not persuasive because the Examiner needed to let the applicants know that there is another application claiming the same invention.

Claims 1, 4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41 are not allowed.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

Claims 1, 4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41 are again rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over WO 01/35940, hereby known as Lewis et al. in view of WO 99/47128, hereby known as Timmins et al., all of record, for reasons of record as set forth in the previous Office action dated January 27, 2010 at pages 3-5 as applied to claims 1-4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41.

Applicants' remarks regarding the prior art (Lewis et al. in view of Timmins et al.) does not teach the novel pharmaceutical dosage form that contains a controlled release metformin core (or osmotic tablet) comprising a core and a sustained release coating wherein an immediate release pioglitazone layer is applied to the outer surface of the controlled release core are not persuasive since the applicants have not demonstrated on the record any side-by-side comparison of their novel pharmaceutical dosage form over the prior art since both prior art reference teach dosage forms of a core of metformin coated with a pioglitazone.

As to the low amounts of pioglitazone impurities, it is the position of the Examiner that the amount of impurities would be an obvious expected property of the composition as In re Spada, 911 F.2d 705, 709, 15 USPQ2d 1655, 1658 (Fed. Cir. 1990) since the claims teach the same components as the present claims. Burden is on the applicants to prove otherwise. When the prior art discloses all the limitations of a claim except a property or function and the Examiner cannot determine whether or not the prior art inherently possesses properties which anticipates or render obvious the claimed invention, the Examiner can shift the burden of proof to applicants as in In re Fitzgerald, 619 F.2d 67, 205 USPQ 594 (CCPA 1980).

The rejection made under 35 USC 103(a) is adhered to.

Claims 1, 4, 15, 17-20, 23-26 and 35-41 are not allowed.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within

Art Unit: 1614

TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
